Admissions policy

As an Ofsted registered Childminder I am restricted to the number and ages of children that I can care for at any one time. These details are on my Ofsted Registration Certificate, which is displayed in my home.

I am registered to care for 6 children up to the age of 8 at any one time and of these 6 children a maximum of 3 may be young children and there can only be one child under the age of 1.

I am happy to take on any baby/child within my registered numbers and will not discriminate against children or their families for reasons such as race, religion, sex or ability.

I am happy to take on children with special needs providing I feel I can provide them with the care they need. (For example I will not be able to provide one to one care) If your child has additional needs please discuss them with me first as I would not want to raise your expectations.

All children will be welcomed into my home and I will encourage the other children in my care to support me with this. All parents or carers will receive a welcome pack, which includes information about me and my setting and will also include a contract. This explains that I request a four-week settling in period, so if you or your child or I am not happy with the arrangement it can be terminated easily. When taking on additional children I must take into consideration the children already in my care who are happy and settled. It would be very unfair on them to introduce a child who was disruptive.

If you have any concerns regarding my admissions policy please do not hesitate to contact me.
